Horse Owned by Dr. Linnell Stepped on 2,300-Volt Live Wire-Horse Owned by A. B. Maine Ran Away.

Dr. Edward H. Linnell lost a horse Dr. Edward H. Linnell lost a hor-valued approximately at $300 Thurs-day afternoon about 12:30 in a rather unexpected manner while driving along Tauth street between North Main Tenth street between North Man street and Central avenue. The horse stepped on a wire, gave a lurch and fell dead, very much to the doctor's surprise. It was found that a wire on a 110-volt circuit which feeds the lights in William Kramer's stable had been plown down and in its descent had crossed a feed wire carrying 2,300 volts. The doctor himself did not receive any shock and not a mark was found on the horse. The doctor borrowed a horse from William Kramer and continued on his way. The dead horse was removed by C. K. Annual Banquet of Board of Trade will be Addressed by President Tuttle of the Boston & Maine, Mayor Avery of Holyoke, Senator Searls and Mayor Lippitt-Will be Held on the 23rd.

It has been found necessary to change the date for holding the annual banquet of the Norwich board of trade, in order to accommodate one of the speakers, and definite arrangements are now being made for holding the same in the new dining room of the Wauregan house at 7.30 p. m. Tuesday, Feb. 23. The following list of prominent guests have accepted an invitation to be present and address the board of trade subsequent to the banquet: Hon. Lucius Tuttle, president of the Boston & Maine railroad; Mayor Nathan P. Avery of Holyoke, Mayor Costelio Lippitt of Norwich, and Senator Charles E. Searis of Putnam. Another feature on the programme will be the reading of a poem by Charles E. Case. Those who have read this poem say it abounds in local hits and is sure to be well received.

The acceptance of the Norwich in recent funds to promote the location of new industries in Norwich, it has been considered wise to ask the members to pay an increased amount for the banquet tickets. A canvass of the members hip indicates that the reason for this change is appreciated and will be universally satisfactory.

George H. Schuler, the New Jersey manufacturer, who is making arrangements to move to Norwich, has accepted an invitation to be present at the banquet and meet the business men of the city.

The Board of Trade Quarterly, containing a revised list of members, a list of standing or mittees for the year the year, and much interesting matter relative to the unwritten history of Norwich in recent years, will be distributed at the banquet.

The board of trade rooms are at present occupied temporarily by

E. Case. Those who have read this poem say it abounds in local hits and is sure to be well received.

The executive committee of the board of trade have decided to put the price of the banquet tickets at $1.59. They were only one doilar last year, but as this did not begin to pay the expenses of the banquet it was necessary to take some $330 from the treasury. This year, in view of the plan to use the location is decided upon. year, in view of the plan to use the location is decided upon.
